Busan, Republic of Korea

Busan Metropolitan City would like to express our sincere gratitude to all the tourism stakeholders, including travel agencies and MICE organizers around the world, for your continued interest in Busan, South Korea. Busan Metropolitan City is writing this letter to reassure you that Busan remains a safe and attractive travel destination despite recent global concerns arising from domestic political conditions here in South Korea.

Under the close management of the government and relevant authorities, the Republic of Korea has been and continues to be a safe travel destination, while the city of Busan is more committed than ever to providing a comfortable and safe travel environment for all tourists.

Busan Metropolitan City would like to emphasize that the major tourist attractions frequented by visitors, as well as tourist programs, including major festivals and events, are operating normally as usual and are being safely managed under the close monitoring of Busan Metropolitan City, district-level governments, and related organizations.

Information and support regarding the travel conditions in Busan are quickly updated through the 'Visit Busan' portal and on social media. In addition, a multilingual support service is also in operation to enable real-time communication without language barriers.

The city of Busan avails itself of this opportunity to renew the assurances of its highest consideration and use it as a meaningful opportunity to become a safer and more attractive city.

Busan Metropolitan City look forward to the continued cooperation with our valuable partners who will promote 'the safe and attractive tourist city of Busan'.

Sincerely,

PARK Heong-joon

Mayor

Busan Metropolitan City
